Mission/Purpose	It is the Ministers' Spouses mission to always include members and provide a welcoming and nurturing environment. Special attention is given to widows and affiliate members. Our widows and widowers are our charge to assist and treasure.
Objectives	The objective of the Ministers' Spouses Widows/Widowers Department is to provide a Support system for spouses and members of their families; to provide for the total development of the individual through its programs and ministries; to study and help alleviate problems concerning family; and to be of service to the Church
Accomplishments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Supplied face masks for the workers at the Emanuel County ER in Swainsboro, Georgia.</li><li>• Donated masks, Lysol disinfectant spray, gloves and Lysol laundry detergent to people that had contracted the COVID-19 virus in Waynesboro, Georgia.</li><li>• Random Acts of Kindness Challenge- Spouses were challenged to participate in a 31 day challenge of random acts of kindness to people in the community.</li><li>• Cards of Encouragement were sent to encourage church members.</li><li>• Sent spiritual books to some members, especially those without transportation.</li><li>• Sent Inspirational Devotionals, "One Minute Inspirational for Women" to women going through marital issues, depression, health problems, etc.</li><li>• Graduation Ministry-Walked random neighborhoods in search of graduation signs to put gift cards in mailboxes along with inspirational messages to 2020 graduates because they missed so many of their senior year experiences due to the COVID-19 pandemic.</li><li>• In recognition of "Black Lives Matters", the Ministers' Spouses were encouraged to participate in the "National Economic Withdrawal Boycott", from June 19-June 27.</li><li>• Attended the Home going services of Widow, Mrs. Sally K. Crockett of the Fort Valley Savannah District. She once served as Treasurer for the Fort Valley/Savannah District Ministers Spouses. Her pleasant smile and personality will be missed.</li></ul>
Challenges	In spite of adjusting to our new normal due to COVID-19 we continue to work toward strengthening our family and making our presence known in the community.
Recommendations	We recommend that the Ministers' Spouses be more active and supportive of the Ministers' Spouses Department in each church.
