Mission/Purpose

The Women's Missionary Council of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church will share the good news, salvation through Jesus Christ with unsaved men, women and children at home and abroad by using the process and program outlined in the Bible, the Book of Discipline of the Christian Methodist Church and the Constitution and Bylaws of the Women's Missionary Council.

Objectives

The purpose of the Region Women's Missionary Society shall be:

- To implement the missions and unity of the Christian Church in Christ Jesus.
- To make that mission and unity known at home and abroad.
- To encourage cooperation, fellowship, and mutual counsel concerning the spiritual life and religious activities of the Christian Church.
- To encourage the study of the Bible and to assist in spreading the Gospel
- To study the needs of society in order to aid in the development of programs, people, processes and resources and resources that will enable the Women's Missionary Society to fulfill its mission. Such studies shall enable the Council to react cooperatively to the moral, ethical and spiritual issues inherent in spreading the Gospel.
- To work closely with private and public institutions in fulfillment of common goals, insofar as such cooperation is consistent with the Constitution and Bylaws of the Region Conference Women's Missionary Society.
